

3.5.10

The Snow White Clown

On one corner of my desk sits a snow white wedding dress clown smiling at you. It has a pearly white outfit with small white flowers sewn on to it. Its teardrop shaped sea green paua eyes stare at you and never blink. It's small round golden nose and its golden heart shaped mouth look perfect against its silky white head.

If you walked closer you would notice its fluffy white hair which is partially concealed underneath its elegant white lacy hat.

Underneath its shiny white head is its white lacy frill which is your only clue that it's a clown otherwise you might think it's a beautiful white snow princess.

By Charlotte☀