

The Frozen Dragon

On one side of an old cranky school desk sits an electric blue dragon. Its huge glittering wings are wide open.

Inside the mouth of the frozen dragon are his teeth, as pointed as sharpened blades of iron.

With its mouth wide open it looks like it's going to blow out a whole chunk of fire.

The icy blue dragon is standing on a brick castle staring with his bright yellow eyes, at a globe with sky blue, daisy yellow, lime green and chicken orange lines that look like minuscule spirits.
