

Ideas for Home Learning

Play a board game	Set the table and count	Bake a cake/ cook and help measure	Fold the washing & count how many
Talk to your parents about your favourite school activity	Make a collage by cutting pictures out of old magazines	Learn to tie shoelaces	Dry the dishes and count how many
Play 'I spy'	Talk to your parents about something you find difficult	Visit the local library	Read the numbers on letterboxes as you walk to school
Tidy your shoes and count in twos	Describe an object and get your parent to guess what it is	Match the pairs of socks in the wash	Help cook a family meal
Tidy your room	Read to your favourite toy	Draw a picture of your family	Play games that involve backwards counting
Close your eyes and listen to the sounds around you. What can you hear?	Dance to your favourite music	Learn and recite a poem	Practise bouncing a ball
Play catch and count how many times you can catch a ball without dropping it	Play with playdough	Cut out letters/words from old magazines and make an alphabet or word book	Find out about something that interests you